MISS DOROTHY WOOD, whose picture appears above, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wood, formerly of Philadelphia, now of Hawaii. Miss Wood has been acknowledged belle of many society events since the arrival of the family in Honolulu a little more than a year ago. She is fond of sports, and is one of the best swimmers at Waikiki. She has been hostess at a number of entertaining and unusually enjoyable character.

HONOLULU has never had a more popular place of amusement than the Oahu Country clubhouse in Nuuanu Valley and a more delightful gathering than that which attended the C. F. Wood party this week is not within the memory of society folk.

The clubhouse could not have been more attractively decorated, and, considering that it was never more beautiful than on Tuesday night, for nature, too, was in her gala dress and the moon smiled down upon the festivities.

The entire clubhouse was banked with tropical palms, forming a beautiful back ground for the brighter embellishments. Depending from the ceiling were green and red festoons of a delicate fabric brought all the way from the Bay State for this occasion.

At the intersections of the festoons were hung large red and green Christmas bells, bespeaking the merry Christmas season. At the massive pillars were arches of bamboo decorated with red poppies and red carnations.

The flowers were furnished by Mr. Max Telford's nursery. He con-

Last Leap-Year Dance to be Given This Month

At the beginning of this year a number of Punahou girls gave a Leap-Year dance and the affair was one of the most enjoyable that the young folks had experienced. Now, as a farewell to the year a number of these girls are giving another dance at the Outrigger Club on the thirty-first of December.

About ninety young ladies are to be invited and each of them will escort a masculine friend to the dance. When they arrive at the clubhouse the girls will see that their partner's cards are well filled.

Perhaps the young ladies will be quite as solicitous for the good times of their friends as the same young gentlemen were for their good times at previous dances. It is hoped that the young gentlemen will take a lesson or two.

Miss Thelma Murphy is at the head of the affair and the girls who are helping her are: Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Eloise Wichman, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Beth Wood, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Clorinda Low, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Catherine Ashley.

Mr. Bert Clark entertains an enjoyable dinner party on Thursday evening at the Courtland. The center of the table was filled with a basket of yellow coreopsis, twined with yellow tulle. Among those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Sheedy, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Smith, Miss Betty Case, Miss Helen Alexander, Mr. McInerney and Mr. Clark.

Mr. Frederick Klamp to Entertain
 Mrs. Frederick Klamp has invitations out for a dance to be given at Kahala on New Year's Eve.

Children's Christmas Party to be Given
 Mrs. Kirby Smith and Mrs. Joseph E. Sheedy have invitations out for a Christmas party. The guests have been asked to dress as children.

The Palma Sale
 Honolulu society women busied themselves yesterday afternoon and are busy this afternoon and will still be occupied this evening looking after the sales at Palma Settlement. The prices were marked so low that even the child who had but a pittance was able to remember the members of his family at Christmas.

As the children entered the door they were given in exchange for coin little slips of paper marked "one cent" and with these slips they made their purchases. As soon as an article was bought the child took it to the girl who stood at the counter wrapping parcels and from there to the girl who addressed each of the gifts.

To one who is not accustomed to the many little children who visit the settlement daily the first thought that came up yesterday was that all of bedlam had been let loose. Still

The Minute Dance.

One of the pre-Christmas entertainments that will probably be much enjoyed is the dance the Minute Club is giving this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hoogs, on Makiki street.

The house will be decorated with evergreens and make-believe snow. The affair is a masquerade and the costumes will in all probability be attired as Santa Claus and Christmas sprites.

Kaal's orchestra will furnish the music for the dancing. The invited guests are: Miss Juliet Atherton, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Violet Atherton, Miss Alice Brown, Miss Bertha Kopke, Miss Esther Kopke, Miss Sarah Lucas, Miss Carrie McLean, Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Marjorie Gilman, Miss Marjorie Peterson, Miss Blanche Soper, Miss Muriel Howatt, Miss Eunice Pratt, Chester Livingstone, Miss Marguerite Wadman, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Alice Hoogs, Miss Fanny Hoogs, Mr. and Mrs. Jack

Mrs. Frank Thompson Entertains.

On Thursday evening Mrs. Frank Thompson entertained at a prettily appointed dinner, at the Rialto Hotel. The color scheme for the decorations was pink and was developed with American beauty roses. Kaal's quintet club played popular music through the dinner hour. Covers were laid for twelve, including Mr. and Mrs. Fritch, Captain and Mrs. Alog, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Georg Rodiek, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horner and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.
